INSPIRE CIVIC LEARNING THAT LASTS BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

FREE STATEWIDE CIVIC LEARNING FOR ARIZONA STUDENTS IN GRADES 6-12.

Civics Matters Arizona is a year-round civic education initiative that helps students build civic knowledge, leadership skills, and confidence through authentic, real-world experiences. Designed to complement classroom instruction, the program provides flexible opportunities for schools to engage students in meaningful civic learning at no cost.

ONE PROGRAM. THREE CONNECTED EXPERIENCES.

LEARNING HUB

Interactive, self-paced civic learning journeys and Leadership Challenge opportunities that can be incorporated into classrooms, advisory periods, clubs, or independent learning.

JANUARY CIVICS MATTERS SUMMIT

A statewide student event that connects thousands of Arizona students with civic leaders, community organizations, and hands-on learning experiences.

JUNE WASHINGTON, D.C. TRIP

High school students who complete the Learning Hub and Leadership Challenge have the opportunity to earn a place on an all-expenses paid, unforgettable civic learning trip to the nation's capital.

WHY SCHOOLS PARTICIPATE

Free for Arizona schools

Designed for grades 6-12

Flexible implementation with no curriculum adoption required

Engaging, standards-aligned civic learning

Opportunities that inspire student leadership beyond the classroom

Year-round experiences that connect learning with real-world civic engagement
